The first day of production will begin the day the last order and all necessary information is received. Production is scheduled to be completed in four weeks. If your order is completed before four weeks, it will be shipped out or be ready for pick up after you have been contacted.*

A representative will contact you 24 hours after all information has been received. They will then confirm your order and take your credit card information. All credit cards will be charged at the same time, on the first day of production. If for any reason you need to cancel your order, a 25% fee will be applied per dress ordered.

L'atelier is currently a division of Papeterie LLC. All charges will appear on your statement as "Papeterie LLC."
